

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Bob and Marge Rawlins were the inspiration for the courtyard in front of the Shrine of Music in Vermillion, South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, The Rawlins family support has resulted in establishing a museum as a special showplace, an outstanding museum dedicated to the history of musical instruments in the Western Hemisphere; and,

WHEREAS, Their support established a Chair in Music at the University of South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, They assisted the University in establishing the University Piano Trio which will begin presentations during the 1987/88 academic year throughout South Dakota; and,

WHEREAS, The courtyard in front of the Shrine to Music will be dedicated on Saturday, September 26th; and,

WHEREAS, It is fitting and proper for the Governor and the citizens of South Dakota to recognize the Rawlins family commitment to the arts and culture, their special love for South Dakota, and their faith in the future of the University of South Dakota;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICHELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim September 26, 1987, as in South Dakota, and thank them for their love and devotion to this state.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Thirteenth Day of August, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Seven

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELRIGG, SECRETARY OF STATE
